RE: Brunson v. alma S. Adams et al
Docket: 22-380

Dear Justices,

This letter is to express my support of the above referenced case. The United States has experienced a national security breach when the defendants of this case voted to thwart the proposed investigation into the claims that there were enemies of the Constitution that rigged the 2020 presidential election. This case is not about a fraudulent election. It is about the defendants breaking their oath of office by thwarting the investigation. You truly are in a position that represents a court system greater than the world has ever seen.

I pray that this petition will be granted and for this case to be heard that the right and just outcome might prevail. I am grateful for your time and consideration.

Sincerely,
